and all who are in sympathy with the principles and policy of the Republican party, to attend a Madison, at 2 o'clock p.m., on Wednesday, July 23d, for the purpose of appropriately celebrating the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of the organization of the Republican party in Wisconsin. It is especially desired that as many as possible of those be present. Distinguished speakers from this and other States will be secured to address the meeting.

ASSEMBLY CONVENTIONS.

SECOND DISTRICT.

A Republican convention will be held at the Common Council Room, in the city of Janesville, on Saturday, July 19th, 1879, at 2 o'clock p.m., for the purpose of electing delegates to the State Convention.
By order of Committee.

THIRD DISTRICT.

A Republican convention will be held at the Court House, in the city of Janesville, on Wednesday, July 16th, A. D. 1879, at 2 o'clock p.m., for the purpose of electing delegates to the State Convention. The towns will be entitled to delegates as follows: Fulton, Milton, and Clinton five delegates each; Harmony, Johnson, Lima, Turkey, Porter three each; Bradford and La Prairie two each. By order of Assembly District Committee.
W. A. MATTHEW, Chairman.

Clinton, Wis., July 1st, 1879.

Can anyone describe the bond of union in the Democratic party?

Why don't more Democratic papers of Wisconsin rejoice over the "success" of the extra session? Why this silence regarding the Democratic record?

Hayes shows as much pluck, backbone, courage, and coolness, in fighting the rebel Congress, as he did in fighting the rebel Army of North Mississippi.

The fact that Sam Cary has deserted the Greenback party and joined the Democratic party in Ohio, is not at all strange.
Sam's heart is where he can get the biggest salary. He preaches politics for pay —not from conviction.

By failing to appropriate money to pay deputy marshals, the Democrats hoped to give the "Monombers" in the South the command of the situation, which would be to defy the courts and to furnish the Democratic party whisky without a tax. That is what the party wants—cheap whisky.

The Louisville Courier-Journal says:
"Tom Ewing's thoughts may be ragged, but his words are golden." Will the Courier-Journal apply this statement to Ewing's words uttered only in 1873, when he said that the Democratic party had ceased to become an instrument of reform in American politics?

We hope there will not be any serious disputes among the Republicans in Ohio as to the size of Foster's majority. Some want to put it at 39,000, and no less. Others say they will be satisfied with 25,000.
There are others who are sure of 20,000.
Hundreds say not less than 15,000. The least hopeful mark 10,000. One thing is certain, and that is that Thomas Ewing will be overwhelmingly defeated for Governor. The Democrats feel it in their bones, and they confess it.

According to the Milwaukee News there has been a great change politically, in that city. The News attempts to explain the downfall of the Democratic party in Milwaukee by saying that "saloon keepers, gamblers, bummers," and the like, have gone over to the Republican party. Has the Milwaukee Democracy become so corrupt that it has in fact disgusted gamblers, bummers, and "keepers of break o' day houses"? If that be so, they are entitled to some respect for seeking a purer political atmosphere.

When Henry Watterson, who thinks it a mortal sin to be a Republican, and who wanted to raise 100,000 men in 1877 to march on Washington and seat Thieden lashes the Bourbon Congress, what is the Democratic party coming to? Last week —on Friday—he said in the Courier-Journal, to Congress: "Come home you suckers. Come home, you chuckleheads. Come home, you knuckled-headed, braidedshanked, bow-legged, web-footed varmints c-o-m-e-h-o-m-e!" When an editor will write about his political brethren in this manner, things are not very lovely in the party.

DEPUTY MARSHALS.

According to a dispatch from Washington to the Chicago Journal, Attorney-General Devens has given it as his opinion that the failure of the Confederate Congress to provide for the payment of the United States Marshals will not disorganize the courts to any serious extent. He will pursue the same course that McCrary did last year when Congress failed to appropriate money to sustain the army. It was not disbanded, but was sustained without a dollar of appropriation until the Democrats came to their senses and made the necessary appropriation. Mr. Devens says the Marshals will continue to do their duty, the courts will not be closed up, and next winter Congress will be compelled to pay the Marshals for the services rendered. He thinks there will be some embarrassment in some places, but that it will not be gen-

PAST AND PRESENT.

A Meeting of the Early Pioneers of Wisconsin.

MADISON, July 3—In pursuance of a resolution passed at a session of the members of both conventions that framed the Constitution of the State, held last February, a call has been issued for a convention of the members of the first and second Territorial conventions and the members of the State Legislature and State officers up to 1850, to meet at the capital July 16. The general purpose of the gathering is to secure personal records, memories and statistics of pioneer times for permanent preservation; to compare the past with the present, and note the revolution a third of a century has wrought in changing a wilderness into the abode of civilization in its highest cultivation. Railroad fare will be reduced to half-price for all persons attending the convention. There is likely to be a very large attendance.

BELOIT COLLEGE.

Interesting Commencement Ex- ercises Yesterday—Excellent Speak- ing—Degrees Conferred.

BELOIT, July 2—A fair day, a large crowd of visitors, and intensely interesting exercises combined to make commencement a great success. The Chicago orchestra won high distinction for their share in the programme. The speaking was excellent in all respects. Mr. A. F.
Burt, of Milton, had a substantial matter of fact oration on "National Vigor." Mr. Crosby, of Aurora, Illinois, delivered a good oration on "A Moral Tendency in the Present Ethical Taste." Mr. Theron Durban's oration on "Schiller and Burns" was carefully written and well wrought out. The poem, "On Sineux's Tide," by H. S. Metcalf, of Mount Carroll, Ill., was the poet's usual happy vein. Horace Goodwin did himself great credit in his expressive rendering of an oration, which was written with careful regard for good rhetoric and a logical plan. "The Power of Personality" was the theme presented very creditably by Horace Humphrey. Arthur Johnson's oration, "The Future of International Law," was an interesting production, well delivered. Mr. H.

S. Metcalf deserves high praise for his excellent rhetoric in the treatment of a very interesting subject, "The Ethical Side of Shakespeare." "The Battle of Trafalgar" was the next oration, by Fred Wilcox, of Beloit. It was characterized by graphic description and good elocution. Fawcett, of Aurora, Ill., presented a theme of current interest, "An Ultimate Feature in Communism," and his treatment of it was commendable. Mr.
J. F. Horne, of the class of '76, and recently from Andover Theological Seminary, delivered the master oration. Mr. Horne's effort was a clear and forcible expression of the fear that the scholar of the times is becoming too mechanical. Will S. Jeffries delivered an oration in good Anglo-Saxon on "The Evil of Absolutism in France." The President conferred the degree of Bachelor of Arts on the graduating class: that of Master of Arts on W. B. Hubbard, F.
L. Fisk, I. C. Buckridge, and J. F. Horne, all of the class of '76. The Rev. George Bushnell and the Rev. S. J. Humphrey received the degree of Doctor of Divinity, and the degree of Doctor of Laws was conferred on Judge David Taylor, of the Supreme Court of Wisconsin.

After the exercises in the church an exhibition was given by the college gymnasium class with the dumb-bells and lan-dism clubs, led by Mr. Fred Wilcox. The exercises were witnessed by fully 500 people.
The class of '77 to-day gave the college a purse of $305, a praiseworthy present.

MILITIA ENCAMPMENT.

FREEPORT, Ill., July 2—The encampment opens to-morrow. Taylor's Park has been placed in readiness for occupancy.
The following companies Illinois National Guard are expected: Company A, Sycamore; B, Rockford; D, Aurora; E, Elgin; F, Genoa; G, Creston; H, Lena; I, Galena; K, Naperville. Twelfth and Fourteenth Battalions and Battery C, three companies, Fourth Iowa; two from Janesville and one from Beloit, Wisconsin are expected. The Governors of Illinois, Iowa, and Wisconsin, with their staffs, have accepted invitations General John C. Black will speak on the Fourth. Quartermaster Silsby has devoted the past few days to completing arrangements. Col. Brazee and staff arrived this evening. Special trains will run on all the roads. If the weather continues fine there will be an immense influx of sight-seers from the neighboring towns.

ARCHBISHOP PURCELL.

NEW YORK, July 2—There is a rumor going about, drawn apparently from Western sources, that Archbishop Purcell is insane and has been for some days in a retreat near Albany. Vice General Quinn and other Catholic dignitaries deny the story. They say that the Archbishop is visiting near Albany, staying at the Convent of the Sacred Heart, and declare that he was, to all appearances, when here in perfect mental health, and so far as they know, is still.

A BICYCLE TOUR.

MILWAUKEE, July 2—Frank Farwell and Edwin F. Brown, of Chicago, now on a bicycle tour through Wisconsin, rode into the city to-day, having made the distance from Kenosha. They go to Waukesha to-morrow, thence to La Crosse, back to Appleton, and from that point straight home to Chicago.

WATERTOWN.

WATERTOWN, July 2—A fire which broke out at 3 o'clock this morning destroyed the machine shops of J. B. Bennett's threshing machine works, together with the machinery and stock, involving a loss of from $4,000 to $7,000. Insured in the Home, of New York, for $2,000.

The Census of 1880.

Representatives Caswell, Hazelton and Pond, of this State, have, by request, submitted to Hon. Francis A. Walker, Superintendent of the Census of 1880, the following plan for dividing Wisconsin into four Supervisor Districts, for census purposes; it will probably be adopted:

Gold Under the Sea.

The presence of a French gentleman at Milford, Delaware, and his wanderings over the Polk farm, recall the legends concerning the treasure under the water in that vicinity. The stranger is not the first Frenchman who has sought the sixteen kegs of gold—more than a million in Spanish dollars—buried on the Polk farm by the officers of a French privateer in 1780.
The vessel was chased by a British man-of-war, put into the bay, and had just time to send a boat ashore with her treasure before she was captured. The diary of Ezra Polk, who owned the farm at that time, relates at length the circumstances of the burial of the treasure, and at different times Frenchmen have been here to hunt it, but owing to doubts as to the washing of the shore, the bearings they had no longer applied to the rich tomb of gold. Under the water near Cape Henlopen, however, are still greater deposits of treasure.
Nearly a century ago the De Brock, a large English man-of-war, was captured and sunk while entering the bay. Besides a fabulous amount of treasure between her own decks, the De Brock had in charge two Spanish galleons loaded with specie, and these galleons went down with the man-of-war. In addition to this, there was a Spanish prize ship, loaded with gold and silver, which tried to pass the Cape in a storm, but was lost off Sineuxent beach, near Ocean City, several miles further down. Treasure enough was washed ashore from this prize ship to blacken the wreckers who dwell along the shore.

The Dignity Of The Senate.

From the Boston Traveller.
It is thought that the Senate is losing its dignity. It never had much dignity to lose, partly because it has had so many Presidential-seekers in it, for to seek the Presidency spoils a man's temper, if it be good, and makes worse, if it be bad. There used to be hot fights in the Senate as any that have occurred in the present session; and displays of blackguardism were not entirely unknown in that body. Henry Clay, being Secretary of State, called out Senator Randolph and took a shot at him, because Old Roanoke blackguarded him in the extreme style. How Mr. Clay himself came down upon Mr. Choate in the Senate is not forgotten, and Mr. Benton and Mr.
Clay had some still bouts, so did Mr. Clay and Mr. Calhoun. "I am the master of the Senator from Kentucky," said Mr. Calhoun, on a certain occasion. My master, said Mr. Clay, in his most scornful manner; "I would not have the Senator from South Carolina for my slave!"

Married at Ninety-Eight Years.

Montreal Witness.
George Lessard called upon Mr. Des-noyers, a few days ago, to claim his pension due him for his services in the war of 1812. He is 99 years of age, hale and hearty. Four times he has been married; with his first wife he lived thirty-three years, when she died; he married his second wife, who died within a year; his third marriage was more fortunate, and, after thirty-one years of happiness, she also departed this life. Last year, for the fourth time, the old veteran entered the matrimonial state, and he appears perfectly contented with life.

A Terrible Disaster.

Wednesday morning the passenger train south on the Rock Island was hitting right in the middle of the bridge...

The passengers were alarmed, not at the determined neutrality of the farmer, but at the sudden stoppage of the train.

"What has happened?" asked the third passenger. "What broke?" asked the fourth passenger.

"What broke?" asked the fifth passenger. "What's up?" asked the sixth passenger.

"What broke loose?" asked the seventh passenger. "What done it?" asked the eighth passenger.

"Broke a spring hanger," gravely replied the fireman, and passed on, and all the questioning passengers drew their heads back and closed their windows.
